About Second Harvest Food Bank

Second Harvest Food Bank is leading the fight against hunger by providing food access, advocacy, education, and disaster response. Second Harvest provides more than 34 million meals to 700+ partners and programs across 23 parishes. With help from our communities, we can make food security a reality for every household in South Louisiana.

OUR INITIATIVES

Every Child, Every Day

Ensuring that children are fed through programs like Kids' Café, Summer Feeding, Backpack, and School Pantry.

Pathways to Health

Teaching how food relates to overall health through Nutrition Education, hospital/clinic-based partnerships, community gardens and health fairs.

Neighborhood Partner Network

Distributing food and providing assistance to those in need through partner agencies, SNAP outreach, and Harvest Markets.

Connecting Seniors

Providing access to food and assistance to seniors through our Senior Café program.

WAYS YOU CAN HELP

- ✓ Donate food and/or dollars.
- ✓ Volunteer your time at Second Harvest or at our special events.
- ✓ Get your company or business involved with Second Harvest.

About Chef Susan Goss

A chef for more than 30 years, Susan is a graduate of the prestigious New York Restaurant School. After owning and operating award-winning restaurants in Indianapolis and Chicago, Susan and her husband relocated to New Orleans. Susan joined Second Harvest in 2013 as a volunteer and assumed leadership of our 8,500 square-foot Community Kitchen in 2016. An avid gardener and passionate cook, she is an advocate for local food production, sustainability, and sensible usage of our natural resources.
